noun

1. an act of traveling from one place to another.

"she went on a long journey"

synonyms trip, expedition, excursion, tour, trek, voyage, junket, cruise, ride, drive, jaunt,
: road trip;

Webster's defines the "journey" as an act of "traveling from one place to another." Yeh. I guess so. I would like to think of it as "The Journey" - the process of stepping into the identity God has for us."

And that is why we are here! We are on a journey to become who God has called us to be. AND, then, we are going to turn around and teach/lead others into their place of Identity based on our healing, tools, and testimonies.

We, all, in this group, have some very similar things in common. We are all looking for our tribe and looking for the purpose for which God has created us. AND, if I can guess, I could assume that we all have been through hell the past season. Why? I think I know why...because God has a plan to turn our messes into messages. AND I want to help with that process.

We ALL have had some inner healing but most important, we've all been searching. I believe God has brought us all together to share what we have learned and experienced and then start on the next phase of The Journey of becoming, so we can then teach and share our experiences with others. Good, bad, and indifferent, churchd and unchurchd.

I believe that God has led us all to this point of convergence in our lives for this purpose of working together on the next part of The Journey for the sake of others.

So...if you are STILL interested, read on...

We will meet corporately on the first Sunday of each month at minimum (some months will include other meetings, events, seminars, travel, retreats, speaking engagements, etc. for teaching, impartations, training, etc.). A few long-distance members join us via Zoom. But they participate as much as is possible considering they are “a-fars” (at least until God moves them to Dahlonaga lol). We also record the teachings/trainings in case you have a conflict of schedule for our meetings. These recordings will be sent to you at your request. Otherwise, our meetings are interactive. We will assist and help you to join us through the web if you are not local, as well as walk you through the process of receiving your recorded teachings if you can't participate LIVE. The monthly fee is $125 and is due by the 1st of the month. If you so choose to allow us to be your “church” feel free to tithe to CIH. You will receive an invoice but are able to pay by check, PayPal, or whatever means works for you. These fees are used for this ministry as well as to support my income. I have also learned after 20 years in ministry that folks will earn what they pay for.

We will also offer the option of participating in individual monthly prayer ministry sessions with the team via Skype, FaceTime or FB Messenger, etc. I will pair you up based on experience or lack thereof until I can get you all “up to speed” in your prayer ministry skills. (If you so choose?) I will help you work at a pace that feels comfortable for you, all the while pushing you out of your comfort zone to become skilled at the process and adept in the wisdom and knowledge necessary to help others with healing.

IF you are not interested in leading others in prayer ministry that is fine also... you will just have the option to RECEIVE ministry every month, and we will help you assess how God would like to use you in other aspects of ministry. We have some on our team who prefer to participate in an intercessory capacity – that is wonderful! WE NEED MORE INTERCESSORS!!! I will connect you with our head intercessors and they will add you to different lists of intercessory prayer and teach you how to build teams for your church or community.

My hope is also to touch base with you on your progress on a regular basis to make sure that you are growing in learning in the areas that you are called and to come alongside you to develop your gifting.

I will also assign monthly books to read based on the teachings that I am offering. These books are not mandatory but certainly important if you plan to build an arsenal of healing resources, etc.

I will be here for you as issues come up in your life. I want to help you walk through and grow in your identity and healing.

I will help you recognize gifts, talents, callings, and shortcomings so you can recognize how God wants to heal and how He desires to use you.

I ask your permission to speak truthfully and candidly about your heart and barriers that I recognize will prevent you from becoming fully who God created you to be.

I will offer you a corporate Body in The Journey to grow with in all things healing.

I will come alongside you to assist you in your spiritual growth. Feel free to text, call, or email me if you need anything. I will try to respond expediently unless I am out of town, etc. If so, you will know in advance and I will have someone in leadership covering in my absence.

We will also come alongside you and assist you in developing your voice whether it be in a blog, a book, devotional, or whatever. We all have a testimony and we want to assist you in better developing that voice in whatever capacity you feel called. Janet has assisted on over 35 books (to date and growing) and too many blogs, vlogs, etc. to even mention. AND, she wants to contribute to our ministry by assisting you in your next project.

CIH also not only offers ongoing classes, seminars, and retreats outside of the Journey tribe but also desires to come alongside you to help you develop your own voice and platform for classes you are interested in teaching in the future. We are active each week in jail ministry, Starbucks prayer gatherings and other random pop-up meetings.

These are just a few of the things we have going and growing but always open to more as the Lord leads. More than anything else, it's a great tribe with a strong foundation in healing and the Word seeking to live a lifestyle of Peace and Rest all the while discovering the fullness of our identity in Christ, individually, and corporately.

Right now, we are offering Hebrew, Greek, grief classes, Healing Rooms training, and topical Bible studies. These classes are newly developing each month and readily available on an ongoing seasonal basis!!! Who knows, someday maybe YOU will be teaching classes like these.

These are just a few of the offerings that you will be able to access if you decide to join our team. We are constantly adding new benefits as each team member grows and steps into ministry in a stronger capacity. We want the same for you and we would love to have you join us in this JOURNEY!

Does this resonate with you? If so,

I would love for you to share what you expect, what your goals and aspirations are for our time together in this Journey?

I also want you to write down your personal vision and how I can come alongside you to help make that happen?

I also want to hear what you are interested in learning about while participating in this Journey?
